

MERRY CHRISTMAS, ALL!

No Hi-way Closing By State In View, Says Frank Clark

Director Declares Roads Will Be Closed Only On Military Orders.

Local highways used by winter motorists will not be closed to them insofar as the state department of public works is concerned, despite pessimistic rumors to the contrary. It was announced this week that California highways will be closed only on orders of military authorities "or when engineering considerations or public safety appear to require it."

Parking will not be allowed by the state highway patrol to congest the free flow of traffic, according to officers of the patrol.

The public works department issued its statement after it received a large number of requests from city officials for closure of roads throughout the state. The Skline Boulevard on the San Francisco-Palo Alto Peninsula has been barricaded between the Crystal Springs Reservoir and the earth dam.

Director Frank W. Clark said, "It is absolutely imperative that fear and panic be avoided, and that the normal processes of business and government be continued with the least possible interruption."

OLSON ISSUES DECREE TO PUT TEETH IN WAP LAWS OF CALIFORNIA

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 25 —(U.P.)— Gov. Culbert Olson has given peace officers the power to enforce order of state and local defense committee by proclaiming existence of state of emergency.

The proclamation was designed to put teeth into existing legislation. He instructed police and sheriffs' officers to put into effect emergency orders of the state defense council, particularly those covering blackout regulations and operation of automobiles during periods of alert.

Olson pleaded for tolerance in dealing with American citizens of foreign descent, particularly the Japanese.

The American Red Cross is again asking your assistance in one of the most vital programs it has ever undertaken. Only those who have felt the horror of actual war in its most fanatical stages can actually appreciate what war relief as administered by the Red Cross means. We can only pray that that relief will never be required here. We must, however, give thought to those who are even now suffering from the effects of the first short steps of this crucial war and give what we can that this suffering may be lessened as much as possible. Truckee's quota is only $333. That is a paltry sum, but if every community subscribes its quota and none falls short the resultant benefits will more than justify the small sacrifice on each group or individual.

The current holiday season offers one of the most hazardous periods of the year on our highways. Let us be doubly careful this year and thus make the season brighter and more enjoyable. There is more than enough death in the world without adding the unnecessary toll of automobile fatalities.

Don't forget the American Legion's annual New Year's eve dance at the Masonic Hall next Wednesday night.

To the boys in the service, to our friends and neighbors here and everywhere, we of the Sierra Sun and Truckee Republican extend our sincere best wishes for a very merry Christmas.

NEBRASKA BRIDE OF BANK CLERK HERE FOR DEC. 24 NUPTIAL

Miss Velma Roberts of Lincoln, Neb., arrived here this week and became the bride of Robert Simon at a nuptial ceremony performed by Rev. G. J. E. Keetch in the Community Church on Christmas Eve.

Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Besio attended the couple. Mrs. Sigurd Ulland played the processional and recessional wedding marches.

Simon, who has been employed by the local branch of the Bank of America for several months, formerly lived in Geneva, Neb., and attended Nebraska Wesleyan University and University of Nebraska where he received his bachelor of science in business administration and was a member of the Phi Kappa Tau and Beta Gamma Sigma.

The bride also was a student at the schools attended by her husband and was a member of the Phi Mu sorority.

The couple have taken one of the Rossini apartments.

Local War Relief Quota Set At $333 In National Drive

Rev. Keetch Points Out Great Need of Red Cross In War Work.

Truckee's quota for the American Red Cross War Relief Fund has been fixed at $333, according to Rev. G. J. E. Keetch, chairman of the local drive.

The necessity for additional funds for this gigantic task is easily understood. The American Red Cross, pledged to a major role in the nation's battles, has issued an appeal to the citizens of this community and to every American community for an emergency fund of $50,000,000.

The Philippine Red Cross has been notified that the American Red Cross will give all possible assistance in meeting the emergency needs in the Commonwealth. Feeding of refugees and evacuees is presenting a big problem and as usual, the Red Cross is bearing its share.

The drive is being intensified for the purpose of raising the desired money as soon as possible. Radio programs are being given over to the task while Christmas eve the Eddie Cantor program was devoted to the cause while the Fred Allen program on New Year's eve at 6 p.m. will also provide finance and time to the drive.

Local donors may subscribe at any Truckee business house in which one of the signs reading "Your Red Cross Needs You" is displayed.

Particular emphasis is laid upon the Red Cross welfare to the United States armed forces. Since it is the only agency permitted by law to handle the personal problems of the men in uniform and give them special care, whether in the field or in the hospital, it has become a great factor in maintaining the morale of the American army and navy.

TAHOE WAR RELIEF DRIVE PROGRESSING NICELY SAYS REPORT

TAHOE CITY, Dec. 25— The War Relief campaign of the American Red Cross progressing nicely here but on account of the stormy weather and holiday season, campaigners have been unable to contact everyone as yet. However, workers will endeavor to complete their calls before Dec. 30 if possible and it is hoped this district will "go over the top" again as it did for the Roll Call.

Mrs. E. W. Bliss, chairman, is accepting registrations for Civilian Defense for all able-bodied citizens over 16 years old. Volunteer enrollment cards sent by the Council of Civilian Defense bearing a Civilian Defense Oath and information regarding each resident's qualifications and availability are to be filled out in detail.

CONDITIONS GOOD IN THIS COUNTY, SAYS GRAND JURY OF 1941

NEVADA CITY, Dec. 25— The 1941 Nevada County Grand Jury submitted its report and announced it found conditions generally good in this county.

The jury, after an inspection of the women's ward in the county jail and the cell for the insane, some time ago, reported "conditions there were intolerable." Since then, it was stated, the supervisors have appropriated $1,000 for the insanity ward.

Ben Tonini and Edith I. Fay of Truckee were members of the recently discharged grand jury.

Meadow Lake Township residents on the 1942 jury to convene December 29 at the court house in Nevada City are Estelle H. Englehart and Karl L. Kielhoffer.

The theme of the sermon at the Community Methodist Church Sunday morning will be in keeping with the season of the closing of the year. All are invited to come for Sunday school at 10 o'clock and remain for the 11 o'clock service.

65,000 Xmas Trees Taken From Forest In Spite of Shortage

25,000 Trees Are Cut In Public Domain; Average Revenue, 20 Cents Each.

B. C. Goldsmith, in charge of timber sales of the Tahoe National Forest, reports that approximately 65,000 Christmas trees have been harvested from government and private lands within the boundaries of the forest for use in the current yuletide season. This means that nearly 65,000 homes in metropolitan areas of California will be decorated by Tahoe trees.

Of the total cut, 25,000 were harvested from government lands administered by the forest service and sold for an average cost of 30 cents each. Of the total sum received, 25 per cent is to be returned to counties in which the Tahoe forest is located for school purposes and 10 per cent to be returned for road and trail costs.

Twenty thousand trees were sold from private land administered by the forest service under cooperative agreements. These cooperative agreements provided for the forest service to handle all work and cost incidental to the sales and receive therefrom a sufficient sum to cover these costs. This system insures the private landowner that the harvest will be on "sustained yield" basis, or cut for the benefit of and insuring future and continuous crops. Trees thus removed materially increase the value of the remaining stand of trees.

It is estimated by Goldsmith that 20,000 were cut from private land within the Tahoe boundary and were sales consummated by the landowner to Christmas tree dealers. Methods of cutting and harvesting on these lands is usually done without forestry advice or supervision and in some cases results in damage to growing crops.

The Sierraville Ranger district was the area from which the most trees were cut, there being nearly 16,000 White Fir from government land and 2,500 trees from private land. The White Fir of this locality is of exceptionally high quality, Ranger Land of that district states.

Goldsmith also stated that the Tahoe Christmas tree supply is becoming quite scarce and a great deal of effort has to be expended by the commercial purchaser to market the trees. The use of caterpillar tractors, mule pack trains, etc., are extensively used as the available supply of trees is generally located in remote and distant country not accessible to roads.

NUTRITION CLASS IS PLANNED BY RED CROSS NEXT YEAR

Better Light HELPS KEEP EYES RIGHT!

PEOPLE say modern lighting that is "easy on the eyes" makes the eyes feel better... And they are right... Good lighting brings out the beauty of the home furnishings... It aids personal beauty, too.

Light that is glaring brightness or that is dim and gloomy makes hard work of seeing. It causes squints and frowns and scowls and brings on many premature wrinkles and face-lines.

Good, modern lighting merely means the right kind of light, and the right amount of light where you read or sew or use your eyes. And you can have it easily, quickly, inexpensively.

TRUCKEE POST NO. 439, AMERICAN LEGION

To Our Friends

IN a typical rural American community like ours, that immortal Christmas message—"Peace on Earth, Good Will Toward Men"—finds its truest meaning and its sincerest applications.

FOR it is here that the individual really counts. Nowhere else are people so willing to lend a helping hand to a fellow man. No cry of distress remains unanswered, no plea for help ignored. Not only at Christmas time, but throughout the year, every day activities of our friends and neighbors are guided by a sense of brotherly love.

EVEN our friends and relatives of the large cities realize and admit that Christmas "back home" is the finest Christmas of all. And "back home" they'll come, every year, every one of them, if they can.

IN ordinary times these facts might be considered unimportant. But in a stricken world that must come to adopt as its cardinal objective that same message of Christmas—"Peace on Earth, Good Will Toward Men"—the significance of the part we must play in shaping the future of mankind stands out in sharp relief. In so much of the world the individual counts for little. In communities such as ours in America every human being retains the rights and freedom of the individual.

IF we epitomize the true Christmas spirit, we represent the truest of democratic ideals. And thus each of us has a sacred, yet simple, duty to perform. We must reaffirm our will to continue being a peaceful neighbor and a faithful friend. If we do this and do it in the divine spirit of Christmas, the world can continue to look to us as the bulwark of high ideals.

THIS newspaper realizes that as a member of this community we have our obligation to fulfill. We have tried to be a "good neighbor and true friend" to all of you. We will continue to be. And we know that in turn you have the same feeling toward us.

WITH this faith uppermost in our hearts we wish for you an abundance of all the blessings that will bring you—A Merry Christmas.

Christmas Carols in the Camps Feature American Soldier's Yule

LUCKY indeed is the soldier who obtains a Christmas furlough and spends a portion of his holiday season at home, but what about those hundreds of thousands of American boys in our Army who will remain on duty in the cantonments and island bases and in garrisoning distant outposts?

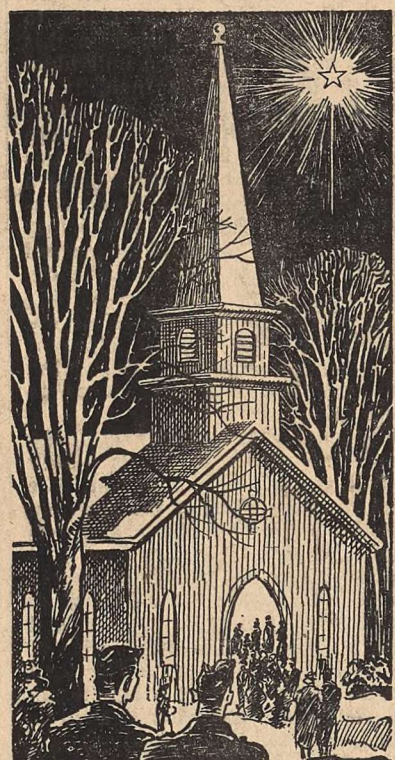

The answer is voiced in a song—a glorious hymn that will be heard from virile young throats singing in praise of Him in whom reposes mankind's steadfast hope in this dark hour of the world's history.

The hymn, a favorite of the American soldier and of his forebears in arms since colonial campfires, "O Come, All Ye Faithful," will be sung in 200 new Army chapels where this year Christmas services will be held for the first time.

In his spiritual life, Army chaplains declare, the citizen soldier finds the closest tie linking military duties with the cherished customs of his home. Especially among young men from the farming communities and the towns and smaller cities the observance of Christmas in the camps will not be unlike the programs in churches throughout the land where friends and neighbors assemble for the Christian festival. In Army chapels the same midnight services will be held, the youthful worshipper will join in the same inspiring music, he will hear again the same messages of hope, the same fervent prayers for peace and good will.

During Yuletide the singing of familiar carols will enliven the camps, not only in the training areas at home but the same music of cheer and comfort will echo from the cliffs of Iceland and the wastes of Greenland as well as among the tropic shores of Trinidad, Guiana, and the Orient. For the Chief of Chaplains has announced the distribution of the new Army and Navy Hymnal, a book containing the best in sacred themes, subdivided for Protestant, Catholic, and Jewish forms of worship. Special visitations will be made to the hospitals. Neither will the inmates of the guardhouse be overlooked.

All will share the spirit of Christmas. At this season the 1,626 chaplains in our Army take stock of their efforts through the year, and the Chief of Chaplains advises the Chief of Staff as well as the home folks that most encouraging progress has been made for the spiritual well-being of the troops. Where 11,640,000 soldiers attended religious services during the last fiscal year with an average of 97.8 persons at each service, it is pointed out that there is now a much larger participation and a corresponding increase in the administration of holy sacraments. Said a veteran chaplain: "The tradition established by those pioneer soldiers who bowed in prayer on the eve of Bunker Hill and in the storm-swept camps at Valley Forge is still alive in the hearts of America's defenders in arms."

Feeling the Christmas Spirit

DURING THE Christmas season one sometimes hears the plaintive question, "How can I feel and enter into the Christmas spirit when my own affairs and the lives of others seem so troubled?"

Sincere self-searching often uncovers the errors which claim to hinder joyous participation in this happy, holy season. The individual may be deploring his inability to give generously. Memories of other Christmas seasons, which were happy and gay before family ties were broken, may rise to depress a lonely one. Others may be so concerned about persons and things that Christmas has for them no sacred significance. The earnest Christian needs to ask himself: "Why is this? Is happiness at Christmas time dependent upon a material sense of things? Are human modes of giving and receiving so important as to affect true joy?"

The longing to feel and fulfill the true spirit of Christmas is surely blessed by our heavenly Father. The quiet contemplation of the spiritual episodes which preceded and followed the first Christmas Day, lifts thought above an apathetic endurance of human necessities. Nothing can dim the spiritual beauty and power of the Scriptural narrative of the nativity, as given in the Gospels of Matthew and Luke. Again and again, the Christian student is impressed by the boundless joy which was felt by those whose spiritual sense discerned the fulfillment of divine prophecy in this great event. The Wisemen, who saw and followed the star in the east, "rejoiced with exceeding great joy" (Matthew 2:10). And when they found the infant Jesus they fell at his feet, and offered him precious gifts. Watchful shepherds, who were tending their flocks on the Judean countryside, heard the angel message of "good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people" (Luke 2:10). Heavenly intuition led them to Bethlehem, where they found the babe lying in a manger. Many of the villagers listened with awe while the shepherds related the wonderful message which had come to them that night. Then these simple, kindly men returned to their sheep tending "glorifying and praising God" (2:20). Later, Simeon, a spiritually-minded man in Jerusalem, took the child

Jesus in his arms, and blessed God for the light and glory which had come into the world. . . .

On page 332 of "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," Mary Baker Eddy writes, "Christ is the true idea voicing good, the divine message from God to men speaking to the human consciousness."

Troubles disappear when the true spirit of Christmas is understood, felt, and loved. Abundant health, activity, happiness, and affection are the natural concomitants of the right understanding of God and ever-present Christ, Truth. . . .

The real man, who is God's offspring, His likeness, is spiritual, perfect, eternal. God's thoughts, or ideas, are imbued with His power and goodness. They are pure, life-giving, and ennobling. Truth, Life, and Love are real, incorruptible substance. . . . All that is worthy, genuine, and beneficial to men originates in Spirit, God. Strength, serenity, beauty, dominion, and unhindered activity are divinely established facts of real being. That which claims power to injure, vitiate, and destroy good is naught but the false argument of mortal mind, the supposititious opposite of the one perfect Mind, God. Health, or spiritual wholeness, is God's eternal gift to all His children.

Someone may say: "How happy I could be, if I knew that my loved ones were safe and enjoying the blessings of Christmas! But duty calls them where danger and distress threaten each moment." The spiritual fact is, however, that God's dear love and the power of His Christ are ever present to save, enlighten, and comfort all. Divine Love is never absent, but ever active, meeting each and every need. God is man's only Life; hence man is eternally safe. The unreal mortal concepts of life, happiness, intelligence, and security are powerless, and cannot touch the real, spiritual man.

Mrs. Eddy writes (Miscellany, p. 256), "At this happy season the veil of time springs aside at the touch of Love." This holy influence is forever our hope, strength, and protection. May we feel the "touch of Love," which takes away the fears, tears, and pettiness of self-centered thinking, and reveals the true spirit of Christmas.

Christmas Carols in the Camps Feature American Soldier's Yule

LUCKY indeed is the soldier who obtains a Christmas furlough and spends a portion of his holiday season at home, but what about those hundreds of thousands of American boys in our Army who will remain on duty in the cantonments and island bases and in garrisoning distant outposts?

The answer is voiced in a song—a glorious hymn that will be heard from virile young throats singing in praise of Him in whom repose mankind's steadfast hope in this dark hour of the world's history.

The hymn, a favorite of the American soldier and of his forebears in arms since colonial campfires, "O Come, All Ye Faithful," will be sung in 200 new Army chapels where this year Christmas services will be held for the first time.

In his spiritual life, Army chaplains declare, the citizen soldier finds the closest tie linking military duties with the cherished customs of his home. Especially among young men from the farming communities and the towns and smaller cities the observance of Christmas in the camps will be unlike the programs in churches throughout the land where friends and neighbors assemble for the Christian festival. In Army chapels the same midnight services will be held, the youthful worshippers will join in the same inspiring music, he will hear again the same messages of hope, the same fervent prayers for peace and good will.

During Yuletide the singing of familiar carols will enliven the camps, not only in the training areas at home but the same music of cheer and comfort will echo from the cliffs of Iceland and the wastes of Greenland as well as among the tropic shores of Trinidad, Guiana, and the Orient.

For the Chief of Chaplains has announced the distribution of the new Army and Navy Hymnal, a book containing the best in sacred themes, subdivided for Protestant, Catholic, and Jewish forms of worship. Special visitations will be made to the hospitals. Neither will the inmates of the guardhouse be overlooked.

All will share the spirit of Christmas.

At this season the 1,626 chaplains in our Army take stock of their efforts through the year, and the Chief of Chaplains advises the Chief of Staff as well as the home folks that most encouraging progress has been made for the spiritual well-being of the troops. Where 11,640,000 soldiers attended religious services during the last fiscal year with an average of 97.8 persons at each service, it is pointed out that there is now a much larger participation and a corresponding increase in the ministrations of holy sacraments.

Said a veteran chaplain: "The tradition established by those pioneer soldiers who bowed in prayer on the eve of Bunker Hill and in the storm-swept camps at Valley Forge is still alive in the hearts of America's defenders in arms."

singer home for the holidays...Nat "Pa" Quilici running out of cigars following the birth of his first—a daughter...Grandpas Harry Lansberg and Frank Gaiennie being kept trim by their respective and active grand daughters... "We Will Set The Rising Sun" motto over the cash register in the Sportland...Mrs. Glenn Robinson in full sail down Commercial Row on Sunday...a white Christmas in prospect...

My best wishes to you all for a very merry Christmas season...and may the next one find us in a victorious peace.

In the Truckee Republican for Aug. 19, 1926, Congressman Harry L.

Englebright first announced himself in this district...His father was congressman from 1906 to 1911...He is a mining engineer and a native of Nevada county...He succeeded the late John Raker...author of the bane of San Francisco's existence under Harry Ickes—the Raker Act...As early as 1926 he favored modification of the Volstead (Prohibition) Act...and was opposed to the League and all other "entangling alliances"...He is one politician who meant it when he said he would "diligently labor for improvement, development and protection" of his district's interests...His opponents were Fred G. Stevenot Frank J. Powers, Marshall DeMotte and R. H. DeWitt...all Republicans.
